

I just want to let the FCC know that I believe that, if corporations who own numerous radio stations are allowed to buy up more radio stations, it will not only be the death knell to radio, but one more chip into the true spirit of capitalism. Less choices in any field is always a bad thing and the field of radio is closest to being over. More restrictions on multiple ownerships are needed.